The members of the Department Promotion Committees are responsible for the strictest professionalism and confidentiality during and after the review process. In addition to these procedures, Department Committee members should also review the Faculty Handbook departmental instructions for Promotion (3.10.3.1). The departmental Committee review(s) should be completed by the deadline published in section V, below.

1. Department Committee Review Standards

The Department Promotion Committee should review all material with the realization that evidence of continuing scholarly/creative productivity as well as teaching effectiveness are typically the essence of all promotion recommendations.

The Department Promotion Committee is expected to determine if the candidate for promotion to Senior Instructor exhibits:

- evidence of excellence in teaching and in student advising or equivalent academic activity,
  - evidence of professional development appropriate to the faculty member's assigned academic role,
  - significant and sustained work in departmental, college@9/ (-)-5.(mi)-1.5 (n)-0.6 (71.3 (a)e0.7 (a)-.
- the collegiate promotion committee, shall vote concerning the candidate at the promotion. Signing will indicate participation in the voting process and attest to the accuracy of the outcome of the vote tally, including abstentions. Proxy votes are not permitted.

IV. The Candidate's Portfolio

The candidate's portfolio must be uploaded to the Google Drive folder by the deadline indicated in section V, below.

A candidate applying for promotion to senior instructor should clearly distinguish materials produced before and after the last promotion. This can be done by adding boldface to those Teaching, Research and Professional Development, and Service items produced since the last promotion into the Watermark Faculty Success Promotion to Senior Instructor report.
