FML Employee' s Illness

I understand that beginning with the fifth calendar day following the day of the incident the On-The-Job Injury Program will pay 66 2/3% of my regular rate of pay for time/wages lost as a result of an on-the-job injury and that this benefit is subject to all normal deductions (such as federal and state tax). I can supplement this reduced rate of pay with my accrued sick and vacation hours.

If lost time resulting from an on -the-job injury exceeds two calendar weeks, the employee must apply for a leave of absence (FML, if eligible or Personal Leave) retroactive to the date of the injury. A new form must be submitted. A leave of absence and onthe-job injury leave will run concurrently and will not "stack" one after the other.
